Number NEW JERSEY STUDENT LEARNING STANDARD Standard for Mastery

RL 3.1	Ask and answer questions, and make relevant connections to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.
RL 3.2	Recount stories, including fables, folktales, and myths from diverse cultures; determine the central message/theme, lesson, or moral and explain how it is revealed through key details in the text.
RL 3.3	Describe characters in a story (e.g., their traits, motivations, or feelings) and explain how their actions contribute to the plot.
RL 3.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, distinguishing literal from nonliteral language.
RL 3.6	Distinguish their own point of view from that of the narrator or those of the characters.
RL 3.7	Explain how specific aspects of a text's illustrations contribute to what is conveyed by the words in a story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting).
RL 3.9	Compare and contrast and reflect on (e.g. practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) the central message/theme, lesson, and/or moral, settings, and plots of stories written by the same author about the same or similar characters (e.g., in books from a series).
RL.3.10	By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems at grade level text-complexity or above, with scaffolding as needed.
RF 3.4	Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.
W 3.3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using narrative technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences.
W 3.4	With guidance and support from adults, produce writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task and purpose.
W 3.5	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
W 3.8	Recall information from experiences or gather information from print and digital sources; take brief notes on sources and sort evidence into provided categories.

W 3.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
SL 3.2	Determine the main ideas and supporting details of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally
SL 3.6	Speak in complete sentences when appropriate to task and situation in order to provide requested detail or clarification
L 3.1	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking
L 3.2	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing
L 3.3	Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening

Unit 2: Nonfiction Reading and Explanatory Writing

Target Course/Grade Level: 3

Unit 2 Summary: Nonfiction Reading and Explanatory Writing

The focus of this unit will be Nonfiction texts and their features. Nonfiction includes biographies and autobiographies; books about history, social studies, science, and the arts; technical texts, including directions, forms, and information displayed in graphs, charts, or maps; and digital sources on a range of topics. However, fiction should still be infused throughout the unit. In writing, students will be able to explain their own point of view and create original works through explanatory writing.

Unit 3 Overview

Content Area: English Language Arts

Unit 3: Fiction & Nonfiction, Informative & Narrative Writing

Target Course/Grade Level: 3

Unit Summary: Fiction/Informational Reading & Informative/Explanatory Writing

During this unit, students will review Unit 1 and 2 skills by reading fiction and informational texts and writing both narrative and explanatory pieces. They will research informational texts and use digital resources to become experts in topics they will then write about. They will read fictional texts to refer to parts of stories, dramas and poems when writing. The students will focus on their ideas and organization to share information in a way that readers will understand and learn. Both types of writing will present their facts and ideas clearly.

Number	NEW JERSEY STUDENT LEARNING STANDARD Standard for Mastery
RL 3.1	Ask and answer questions, and make relevant connections to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.
RL 3.2	Recount stories, including fables, folktales, and myths from diverse cultures; determine the central message/theme, lesson, or moral and explain how it is revealed through key details in the text.
RL 3.3	Describe characters in a story (e.g., their traits, motivations, or feelings) and explain how their actions contribute to the plot.
RL 3.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, distinguishing literal from nonliteral language.
RL 3.5	Refer to parts of stories, dramas, and poems when writing or speaking about a text, using terms such as chapter, scene, and stanza; describe how each successive part builds on earlier sections
RL 3.6	Distinguish their own point of view from that of the narrator or those of the characters.
RI 3.1	Ask and answer questions, and make relevant connections to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.
RI 3.2	Determine the main idea of a text; recount the key details and explain how they support the main idea.
RI 3.4	Determine the meaning of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases in a text relevant to a grade 3 topic or subject area
RI 3.5	Use text features and search tools (e.g., key words, sidebars, hyperlinks) to locate information relevant to a given topic efficiently.
RI 3.7	Use information gained from text features (e.g., illustrations, maps, photographs) and the words in a text to demonstrate understanding of the text (e.g., where, when, why, and how key events occur).
RI 3.8	Describe the logical connection between particular sentences and paragraphs in a text (e.g., comparison, cause/effect, first/second/third in a sequence) to support specific points the author makes in a text.
RI 3.9	Compare, contrast and reflect on (e.g. practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) the most important points and key details presented in two texts on the same topic.
RF 3.4	Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.
W 3.2	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly. A. Introduce a topic and group related information together; include text features (e.g.: illustrations, diagrams, captions) when useful to support comprehension. B. Develop the topic with facts, definitions, and details. C. Use linking words and phrases (e.g., also, another, and, more, but) to connect ideas within categories of information.

	D. Provide a conclusion.
W 3.4	With guidance and support from adults, produce writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task and purpose.
W 3.5	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
W 3.7	Conduct short research projects that build knowledge about a topic.
W 3.8	Recall information from experiences or gather information from print and digital sources; take brief notes on sources and sort evidence into provided categories.
W 3.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
SL 3.1	Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher led) with diverse partners on grade 3 topics and texts, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly. A. Explicitly draw on previously read text or material and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion. B. Follow agreed-upon norms for discussions (e.g., gaining the floor in respectful ways, listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion). C. Ask questions to check understanding of information presented, stay on topic, and link their comments to the remarks of others. D. Explain their own ideas and understanding in light of the discussion.
SL 3.2	Determine the main ideas and supporting details of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally
SL 3.4	Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience with appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details, speaking clearly at an understandable pace
SL 3.6	Speak in complete sentences when appropriate to task and situation in order to provide requested detail or clarification

L 3.1	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking.
L 3.2	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing
L 3.3	Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening
L 3.4	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning word and phrases based on grade 3 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies
L 3.6	Acquire and use accurately grade-appropriate conversational, general academic, and domain-specific words and phrases, including those that signal spatial and temporal relationships (e.g., After dinner that night we went looking for them).

Teacher Notes:

Unit Objectives can be used as guides for your mini-lessons.

This would be a great opportunity to infuse your Social Studies and Science thematic units into the student's research for their Informational piece.

Suggestions for Informational Writing

- How-To Book
- ABC Book
- Animal Report
- Biographies for Black History or Women's History Month
- Interview
- Science Projects

- Infuse various literary genres throughout this unit.

Start a writing portfolio for each student. Include a narrative and informational piece, incorporate typing practice and allow opportunities to publish writing in digital formats.

The following foundational skills should be developed continuously throughout the year:

Reading:

- Reread for clarification
- Marking Text
- Questioning
- Visualizing
- Making Inferences
- Self-Monitoring
- Skim & Scan
- Seeking meaning of unknown vocabulary
- Make and revise predictions
- Building Fluency
- Make connections: text to text, text to self, text to world
- Use text evidence to answer Reading Open Ended Questions.

Writing:

- Use written and oral English appropriate for various purposes and audiences.
- Create and develop texts that include the following text features:
 - Development: the topic, theme, stand/perspective, argument or character is fully developed
 - Organization: the text exhibits a discernible progression of ideas
 - Style: the writer demonstrates a quality of imagination, individuality, and a distinctive voice
 - Word choice: the words are precise and vivid

- Create and develop texts that include the following language conventions:
 - Sentence formation: sentences are complete and varied in length and structure
 - Conventions: appropriate grammar, mechanics, spelling and usage enhance the meaning and readability of the text

LAKEHURST ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS CURRICULUMUnit Overview*Content Area: English Language ArtsUnit 4: Folktale/Legends/Myths Reading & Narrative WritingTarget Course/Grade Level: 3Unit Summary: Folktale/Legends/Myths Reading & Narrative Writing

Students will discover the stories and traditions of cultures across the globe as they read Folktales, Legends, and Myths. Students will compare and contrast the themes, settings and plots of texts within these genres. Students will use narrative techniques to establish the setting, develop characters and unfold a plot that includes a story problem, rising action, climax, and concludes with a solution. Students will use the Sentence Fluency and Word Choice traits to create pieces of writing that have varied sentence structure using vivid words.

Unit Overview

Content Area: English Language Arts

Unit 5: Fiction/Nonfiction Reading & Explanatory/Poetry Prompt Writing

Target Course/Grade Level: 3

Unit Summary: Fiction/Nonfiction Reading & Narrative/Poetry Prompt Writing

The focus of this reading unit is Fiction. You may choose either to focus on Mysteries or Fantasy/Fairy Tales. As always, continue to infuse Nonfiction throughout the unit. Poetry includes nursery rhymes and the subgenres of the narrative poem, limerick, and free verse poem.

- The poem prompt should ask students to explore an idea from the poem and relate the ideas to their experience and or/understanding in a sustained text. The poem prompt should use words as describe, explain, and analyze in order to encourage students to develop their ideas more fully.

Number	NEW JERSEY STUDENT LEARNING STANDARD Standard for Mastery
RL 3.1	Ask and answer questions and make relevant connections to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.
RL 3.2	Recount stories, including fables, folktales, and myths from diverse cultures; determine the central message/theme, lesson, or moral and explain how it is revealed through key details in the text.
RL 3.3	Describe characters in a story (e.g., their traits, motivations, or feelings) and explain how their actions contribute to the plot.
RL 3.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, distinguishing literal from nonliteral language.
RL 3.5	Refer to parts of stories, dramas, and poems when writing or speaking about a text, using terms such as chapter, scene, and stanza; describe how each successive part builds on earlier sections
RL 3.6	Distinguish their own point of view from that of the narrator or those of the characters.
RL 3.7	Explain how specific aspects of a text’s illustrations contribute to what is conveyed by the words in a story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting).
RL 3.9	Compare and contrast and reflect on (e.g. practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) the central message/theme, lesson, and/or moral, settings, and plots of stories written by the same author about the same or similar characters (e.g., in books from a series).
RL.3.10	By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and oms at grade level text-complexity or above, with scaffolding as needed.
RI 3.1	Ask and answer questions, and make relevant connections to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.
RI 3.2	Determine the main idea of a text; recount the key details and explain how they support the main idea.
RI 3.4	Determine the meaning of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases in a text relevant to a grade 3 topic or subject area

RI 3.5	Use text features and search tools (e.g., key words, sidebars, hyperlinks) to locate information relevant to a given topic efficiently.
RI 3.7	Use information gained from text features (e.g., illustrations, maps, photographs) and the words in a text to demonstrate understanding of the text (e.g., where, when, why, and how key events occur).
RF3.3	Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words
RF 3.4	Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.
W 3.2	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly. A. Introduce a topic and group related information together; include text features (e.g.: illustrations, diagrams, captions) when useful to support comprehension. B. Develop the topic with facts, definitions, and details. C. Use linking words and phrases (e.g., also, another, and, more, but) to connect ideas within categories of information. D. Provide a conclusion.
W 3.3	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using narrative technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences. a. Establish a situation and introduce a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally. b. Use dialogue and descriptions of actions, thoughts, and feelings to develop experiences and events or show the response of characters to situations. c. Use temporal words and phrases to signal event order. d. Provide a sense of closure.
W 3.4	With guidance and support from adults, produce writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task and purpose.
W 3.5	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
W3.6	With guidance and support from adults, use technology to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others.
W 3.8	Recall information from experiences or gather information from print and digital sources; take brief notes on sources and sort evidence into provided categories.
W 3.10	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
SL 3.2	Determine the main ideas and supporting details of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally
SL 3.3	Ask and answer questions about information from a speaker, offering appropriate elaboration and detail

SL 3.4	Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience with appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details, speaking clearly at an understandable pace
SL 3.5	Use multimedia to demonstrate fluid reading at an understandable pace; add visual displays when appropriate to emphasize or enhance certain facts or details
L 3.1	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking
L 3.2	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing
L 3.3	Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening
L 3.5	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships and nuances in word meanings

Teacher Notes:

- Unit Objectives can be used as guides for your mini-lessons.
- Invite “Mystery Readers” into your classroom and give clues to the students to see if they can guess who the reader will be.

Infuse various literary genres throughout this unit.

Continue the writing portfolio for each student. The portfolio should include published works in digital formats.

The following foundational skills should be developed continuously throughout the year:

Reading:

- Reread for clarification
- Marking Text
- Questioning
- Visualizing
- Making Inferences
- Self-Monitoring
- Skim & Scan
- Seeking meaning of unknown vocabulary
- Make and revise predictions
- Building Fluency
- Make connections: text to text, text to self, text to world
- Use text evidence to answer Reading Open Ended Questions.

Writing:

- Use written and oral English appropriate for various purposes and audiences.
- Create and develop texts that include the following text features:

- Development: the topic, theme, stand/perspective, argument or character is fully developed
- Organization: the text exhibits a discernible progressions of ideas
- Style: the writer demonstrates a quality of imagination, individuality, and a distinctive voice
- Word choice: the words are precise and vivid
- Create and develop texts that include the following language conventions:
 - Sentence formation: sentences are complete and varied in length and structure
 - Conventions: appropriate grammar, mechanics, spelling and usage enhance the meaning and readability of the text

Unit Overview

Content Area: English Language Arts

Unit 6: Nonfiction/Fiction Reading & Opinion Piece/Persuasive Writing

Target Course/Grade Level: 3

Unit Summary: Nonfiction/Fiction Reading & Creative/Persuasive/Research Writing

The focus of the reading will be nonfiction as students gather information to support their Opinion/Persuasive piece. Continue to infuse Fiction reading throughout the unit. Persuasive writing requires students to state their point of view on a given controversy or topic related to self, school/community, or social situations. To build knowledge on a topic, students will gather information from multiple content areas. Using the Voice Trait, creative writing pieces will be produced to show individuality and personality.

Primary interdisciplinary connections:
